Bertheau, François

Absolute classic examples of Chambolle-Musigny, just like those wine books describe. In our opinion, this is quite simply one of the finest estates in the village, an all-star line-up of ballerina Chambolle. They are thrilling Pinots.

Gachot-Monnot

Damien Gachot is searching fragrant, velvety, elegant Pinots, to pull a cork and enjoy, no hidden meanings. This is not a substitute Romanee-Conti, but a perfect Cote de Nuits-Villages, the proximity of Nuits very evident.

Perrusset, Henri

An unadulterated pure fruit nose, fresh and zesty, without ego and, thankfully, without oak. The palate likewise, bright and focused, a clear sense of terroir. A fabulous Chardonnay value, obviously made with great care, from low yields and healthy ripe grapes.

Fourmente

Situated west of Vinsobres, surrounded by fields of lavender, Rémi Pouizin's family have been making wine on this delightful estate since 1922. 60% Grenache, 40% Syrah from rich clay soil and old vines (25-55 years), this has a rich, velvety palate, somewhat reminiscent of a refined Châteauneuf-du-Pape.

Levet, Bernard

Lovers of age-old Northern Rhône, the likes of Gentaz-Dervieux, Chave and Clape will adore these Levet wines. Traditional old vine Sérine (original grape of the appellation, shelved by most in the '80s), seductive and delicate, wines of substance but also finesse, only possible from the unique soils of the roasted slopes and traditional vinification.

St Préfert

The sharp and single-minded Isabel Ferrando has exploded into the top echelon of Châteauneuf-du-Pape producers. Previously a banker, Isabel only purchased her 13.2 hectares (now 15ha) of vineyards in late 2002. She has subsequently been blessed by an initial run of great vintages and even more spectacular results.
